The NDOA is looking into the possibility of allowing on-line pest control renewals (e-renewals). How do you feel about on-line renewals?
The NDOA is looking into the possibility of allowing conventional paper pest control renewals to be paid for on-line by credit card through a third party contractor. How do you feel about being able to pay for your conventional paper renewal on-line by credit card?
The third party contractor may charge up to a 10% convenience fee for these transactions. Would you be willing to pay this fee (in addition to the license fees) for on-line payment of your pest control renewal?
The NDOA is looking into the possibility of allowing companies to report on-line their pesticide use (aerial and agricultural ground and RUP use). How do you feel about on-line reporting of your company's pesticide use?
The NDOA is looking into the possibility of an on-line store where most all pest control manuals and forms will be available for purchase. Would you be willing to pay shipping and handling for these purchases made on-line?
The NDOA is looking into the possibility of over the counter credit card transactions for examinations, licensing, form purchases, tags, study manuals, etc. (1) How do you feel about over the counter credit card transactions? (2) Would you be willing to pay a minimal transaction fee for this service?	(1)
